Strikers Capture the Power Plant and the Entire Town is Plunged Into Total Darkness

NIGHT SESSIONS FOR CONSIDERING TARIFF MEASURE

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 2.—With the adoption of a resolution providing for night sessions for the consideration of the tariff beginning tomorrow, the senate today heard the suggestion of a policy limiting the dilatory motions which caused a warm protest from Senator Bacon and others. The vice president, basing his action on the precedent established at the last session of the senate when the Aldrich-Vreeland currency bill was under consideration, held that the absence of a quorum could not be called to the attention of the senate if the senator occupying the floor at the time declined to yield for that purpose. Bacon declared the ruling would be a serious abuse of parliamentary law.

Sheriff Says to Have Offered Resistance Would Have Meant Useless Bloodshed and Resents Criticism.

(By Associated Press.)
SISSON (Cal.), June 2.—The power house and electric light plant at McCloud was captured by the striking shingle mill hands today without any resistance being encountered from the twenty-five deputies guarding the buildings. Six hundred strikers paraded late this afternoon. The only result of the capture of the light plant is that 250 homes, the company buildings, offices, hospital, hotel and other buildings are in darkness tonight. Sheriff Howard freely admitted that he needed help to handle the situation and in answer to the governor's sharp criticism stated that resistance would have meant useless bloodshed. J. L. Queale, president of the McCloud River Lumber company, slipped quietly into McCloud in a railway automobile from Sisson. He held several conferences with Sheriff Howard and Colonel Bradbury, but declined to make any public statement. It is said that the failure of the strikers to obtain a conference with Queale led to their determination to close down everything in town.

SACRAMENTO, June 2.—In response to a telegram announcing that 600 Italian mill hands, strikers at McCloud, had broken into the light and power plant this afternoon and forced the firemen and engineers to quit work, Governor Gillett ordered four companies of the state militia to proceed to the scene at once. The troops are under the command of Colonel H. I. Seymour of the Second Infantry, and left here at 6:30 tonight on a special train. The soldiers have been under arms in the armories since last night, but it was not thought they would be needed until the urgent appeal came this afternoon from Assistant Adjutant Bradbury who had been sent to McCloud to investigate. Bradbury stated in the telegram that the strikers went in a body to the machine shops, car bars and power houses, and compelled the firemen and engineers to leave. The town is now without fire protection or light, and the inhabitants and $2,000,000 worth of property are at the mercy of the strikers, who seem to be beyond the control of the leaders.

WITNESS DEFIES CALHOUN'S ATTORNEY TO PROVE CHARGE

Intimation of Perjury Causes Witness to Nearly Start Fight in Graft Case.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—A dozen witnesses supplying disconnected fragments of testimony in the Calhoun trial, occupied the stand today. John H. Helms, formerly employed by the defense, identified a number of reports previously introduced evidence, as stolen from the office of W. J. Burns, and when the witness stated that he had shown those reports to Calhoun, Earl Rogers, counsel for the defense, intimated that witness was committing perjury.

Helms jumped to his feet and defied Rogers to prove his charges. Judge Lawlor intervened and warned the attorney that any more insulting questions addressed to the witnesses would mean jail for the offender. Later Helms declared himself willing to take the place of the antagonistic court if the witnesses whom he had summoned did not receive better treatment. R. G. Schindler, an agent of the district attorney, was telling his knowledge and connection with the reports alleged to have been stolen when the court ended for the day.

HIGH FINANCE AMONG SMALL INVESTORS

If anyone thinks that the small investor is not a financier, he ought to see some of the letters which brokers and promoters receive from him. A certain operator had been advertising a security as a sure dividend payer for the early future. He got a letter from a small investor which read something like this:
"Dear Mr. Broker: I have seen your advertisement, and you have convinced me that your stock is a good one to buy for early dividends. I have decided to invest and will ask you to put me down for 1000 shares. I do not happen to be in funds at this writing, but that is all right; you may take your pay for the stock out of the dividends as they are paid. Thanking you for bringing this opportunity to my attention, I am, etc., etc.—Mining Record."

(By Associated Press.)
ATLANTIC CITY, June 2.—The chief speaker today at the Brewers convention was the Rev. John H. Peters, the chairman of a committee of fourteen which is investigating the liquor question in New York. Peters said the liquor dealers themselves were partly responsible for the prohibition agitation in that they had not always conducted their business properly.

TUSCARORA RIVALS FIGHT DEADLY DUEL

A shooting and cutting scrape took place in Tuscarora about 8 o'clock Sunday night that resulted in the death of James Baker and Clyde Thompson, the participants.

The particulars of the affair as near as we were able to learn them are about as follows:
In a law suit last year between Baker and a man named Anderson, it appears that Thompson was a witness against Baker. This resulted in ill feeling between the two men and it is supposed that last night's affair grew out of it.

Baker and Thompson met about 8 o'clock last night on the walk near Andy Smith's old saloon building. From the walk, they went into a narrow alley between two buildings. Soon after four shots were heard in quick succession. These shots were fired by Thompson and two of them took effect in Baker's abdomen.

Though badly wounded, Baker grappled with Thompson and with his (Baker's) knife cut Thompson's throat from ear to ear. Thompson died immediately and Baker died between 2 and 3 o'clock the next afternoon.

CAR STRIKERS CAUSE RIOTS IN PHILADELPHIA

Attempt to Run Cars After Nightfall Has Disastrous Result and Many are Injured.

(By Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—The attempt of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company to run its cars with non-union men resulted tonight in a number of serious riots. It was the first effort to run cars after night since the strike began and after several futile efforts to get cars through the mobs they were sent back to the barns.

At least 100 people were seriously injured during the rioting. In many instances the cars were set afire, and the police were powerless to control the strike sympathizers, who beat the non-union car crews after dragging them from the cars. The imported crews proved a disappointment to the company, many deserting their cars at the first sign of trouble, leaving them in the hands of the mob.

GAMBLING CASE GOES TO THE JURY LAST EVENING

ARGUMENTS ARE CONCLUDED AT 10 O'CLOCK AND JURY IS LOCKED UP.

The case of C. M. Wandell vs. the Sixty-Six club of Rhyolite was concluded in the district court last evening and at 10 o'clock was submitted to the jury. The entire day was consumed in making the closing arguments. After both sides had finished their speeches, Judge Averill lost but little time in charging the twelve men. At 1 o'clock they had failed to reach an agreement and were brought down town for supper. On their return the argument was again taken up and at the hour of going to press they were still out. It is thought, however, that a verdict will be returned this morning and from the evidence presented during the trial, it looks like a bad day for the "Greenwater Kid."

DEPARTMENT CALLED OUT.

A false alarm called out the fire department at 1:30 o'clock this morning. The alarm was sent in by the watchman at the Tonopah Mining company, who discerned a cloud of smoke arising in the western section of town. As a precaution he notified the department, but when they arrived on the scene the smoke had disappeared.
